FRENCH LANGUAGE CLASSES

GENERAL FRENCH

Description of course contents from A1 to C2
General information on our classes

What is the difference between your different types of classes?

We offer 4 types of classes, each with its own pace, rhythm and schedule.

- General French: it means 3 hours per week (either 1h30 twice a week OR 3h in a row on one day). You would use a textbook that would guide your progression. This type of classes focuses on quick (but rather more intensive) progression.
- Club: 2 hours a week (mostly on mornings and early afternoon) in a class focused on maintaining your level and practice your French, broaden your knowledge of French culture.
- Workshop: 1h30 per week for advanced level focused on perfecting certain skills (extension of vocabulary, debate and structure of your discourse).
- Lunch Hour: 1h per week at Lunch of conversation (no grammar or rigid structure). Maintain your level and

The present document explains the progression of the General French classes but can help you identify your level should you want to enrol in a class or workshop.

Our method

We use Immersion in French as we try to avoid at maximum English in the classroom.

Since we focus on Communication French, our method is based on pair/group works in actual situations through task-based activities.

Tutors will display/provide extra materials (videos, handouts, texts…) as needed in the class.

Textbook and Workbook used

► Edito 4 (B2) - Livre de l’élève (DVD-Rom included) / Ed. Didier 2015

► B2.4 classes cover dossiers 7, 8 and 9 of Edito B2 text book

Please note that the books are not included and are available at our partner Blackwell’s Library with a 10% discount at the till.

Questions and contact

Still unsure this is the right class for you? Please contact us and we will help you decide with a 10-minute free assessment either over the phone or in person at the Institute.
