Please return this form with your subscription to:

Professor James Laidlaw, Treasurer

Society of the Friends of the Institut français d'Écosse

DELC/French

60 George Square, Edinburgh EH8 9JU

If you are a UK taxpayer, your subscription can (since April 2000) be made tax efficient through the Government's Gift Aid scheme. This means that all subscriptions will be treated as gifts and will be eligible for tax relief as long as the Gift Aid Declaration is signed and returned with your subscription. Alternatively you may give a Gift Aid Declaration by phone or via the Internet without having to complete and sign a paper declaration.

Please accept my subscription towards supporting the objectives of the Society of the Friends of the Institut Français d'Écosse (please circle):
