

Concours de la Francophonie 2020

Fifth edition winners:

The Institut français d'Ecosse launches every year le Concours de la Francophonie, a national school competition, to encourage all young French learners and their teachers around Scotland and to celebrate the international day of la Francophonie.

All Scottish primary and secondary schools offering French may enter this competition by submitting a short video (5 minutes max) of a classroom activity in French (conversation, poetry, songs...) to concours.ifecosse@gmail.com

First prize in each of the 4 Categories P1/P4 - P5/P7 - S1/S3 - S4/S6: invitation to attend a French immersion day on 22 March 2020 in Edinburgh to celebrate the international week of la Francophonie at the French Institute.

Unfortunately, this year, we will not be able to receive first prizes winners at the Institute because of sanitary rules.

Second prize in each category: a selection of French books and games.

This school competition is sponsored by TOTAL E&P, the Franco Scottish Society and is organized in partnership with the Alliance Française de Glasgow, SALT, SCILT, and the University of Edinburgh.

The judging panel was this year again very impressed with the quality and creativity of the entries.

Video came from across Scotland : Aberdeen City, Edinburgh City, Glasgow City, Maybole, Granemouth, Isle of Lewis – Western Isles, Kilwinning, New Ekgin.
